FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK - - -

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity. We acknowledge the mystery and majesty that is God. There are three persons united in one God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our finite minds cannot fully understand this Dogma of our Faith, but nonetheless we believe.

This Thursday, June 7th, marks the 30th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood. I feel very blessed to have been able to celebrate the Sacraments and to be able to have taken our Lord's presence each time I have celebrated the Holy Mass. Please keep me in your prayers that I may be a worthy and holy priest.

Since we will not have a Catholic Bible School of our own this summer, I would encourage any interested parents to check into the Totus Tuus program at St. Agnes in Scottsbluff or at St. Patrick's in Sidney. It is a very good Catholic program. You might consider carpooling with another family. The K thru 6th grade program at St. Agnes will be June 1st thru 5th; 9:00 thru 2:30 PM; a lunch and drink must be brought. Call Terri Calvert at 308-641-1044 if you are interested in registering. Sidney St. Pat's is having their Totus Tuus program for 1st thru 6th grades is June 22nd thru 26th from 9:00-3:00. Kids must bring a lunch and drink. Snacks will be provided. The fee is $10.00 per child. Contact Joan at 308-254-2828 at the church office or Pam Ahrendt at 308-203-1174 for registration.

This past Wednesday evening we initiated two new Knights of Columbus, James Cawley and Dean Wright. We are looking for more good men to join our ranks.

If you wish to make a good resolution for the summer, plan on joining us for a weekday Mass each week.

MORRILL COUNTY FOOD PANTRY - SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND - This will be taken at All Souls and Sacred Heart churches. The Pantry serves the needs of all Morrill County residents. The volunteers who gave their help during May on Thursday at the Pantry were much appreciated. May God bless you.

ELECTION RESULTS: Elected to the Parish Council in Dalton were Cindy Reilly and Barb Thompson; elected at Bridgeport were Santiago Ramos, Megan Sauer and Julie Hadden; and chosen at Bayard were Nancy Brandt and Mary Coon. Thanks to all who were willing to serve on the parish councils.

WELCOME, COLSTON KLEIN BROZ! Colston, the son of Nick and Candace Broz, is being baptized this weekend at All Souls Church. He will become part of the family of Jesus Christ. May our prayers support him as he makes his journey of faith in the years to come.

ALL SOULS PARISH - The first Sunday of June will have a potluck dinner after Mass in place of the regular coffee and rolls.

MARRIAGE HELP - Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi) has helped tens of thousands of couples at all stages of disillusionment or misery in their marriage. This program can help you too. For confidential information about or to register for the program being offered Aug. 21-23, in Schuyler, Nebraska, call 1-888-317-5654 or check the web site www.retrouvaille.org

A VOCATION VIEW - We can feel our Lord's call at the strangest times and places. The call can haunt us and pursue us until we say, "Lord, what will you have me do?"

5 MARKS THAT MAKE CATHOLIC FAMILIES DIFFERENT - 1. Catholic families worship together. 2. Catholic families pray together. In addition our individual prayer, we pray together as a family each day. 3. Catholic families are called to intimacy. Families should be schools of love where children where we learn how to love God and each other with our whole hearts, minds, soul, and strength. We cultivate parenting habits that make each member of the family feel loved and valued. 4. Catholic families put families first. We treat family life as the most important activity of the week. We protect family rituals like praying together, having meals together, going to Mass, times to play, work, and talk together. 5. The Catholic family is a witness and a sign. The family should be a witness of love, joy and intimacy. The family can carry this love outside the home by serving the community including the practice of the corporal and spiritual
