FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK - - -

In preparation for the upcoming Annual Diocesan Appeal, our new Bishop wishes to become more familiar with our parishes. There will be a "Listening Session" this Tuesday, Feb. 2nd at 7:00 PM at St. Agnes Church in Scottsbluff. A representative from each parish will give a report on his or her parish. All parishioners are invited to attend to hear reports from the parishes of our area.

Next weekend I will make available the St. Blaise Blessing of throats after Masses. This blessing reminds us of our duty to care for our health, but we especially ask the intercession of St. Blaise to protect our throats from all diseases and illnesses.

We have resumed our men's prayer breakfast program "That Man Is You". Join us this Thursday at the Parish Center at All Souls at 6:15 AM. We welcome newcomers to join us on Thursday mornings. Why not give it a try?

Symbolon is also returning this Wednesday evening at 7:45 PM at the All Souls Parish Center. It is a video-discussion series on our Catholic faith. It is excellent. Please join us. There is good news that Symbolon will be coming to Sacred Heart Parish for the first sessions beginning in Lent.

Use these opportunities to grow in your Catholic faith. You are not too old.

GEE, I DIDN'T KNOW THAT! Beginning with the 5th century and continuing for many years before the invention of the printing press, Bibles were copied by hand and therefore were quite rare. These copies were actually chained to a desk or lectern in church. There they were available for anyone to read. Only the very wealthy had copies of their own.

CHURCH VOCATIONS - "Then He said to His disciples, 'The harvest is ready but the laborers are few. Ask the harvest master to send out laborers to gather his harvest.'" A Catholic might wish to serve the people of God in a specific, professional manner. This could be as a diocesan priest, permanent deacon, a religious brother, religious priest, religious sister, or as a lay person employed in a Church ministry. Maybe our Lord is calling your son or daughter.
