FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK - - - May you and your loved ones have a blessed Christmas Season. May we not forget the "reason for the season". Take time to celebrate the special days of this Season. The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, is celebrated next weekend, New Year's. The following weekend we observe the Feast of the Epiphany, Jan. 8th. The Baptism of the Lord on Monday, Jan. 9th, marks the end of the Christmas Season. Try to keep up some of your holiday decorations through that date.

Please note the different schedule for Masses next weekend. The Mass at All Souls will be at 6:30 PM on New Year's Eve on Saturday, but no Mass at 10:30 AM on Sunday. There will be the 5:00 PM on Saturday at Sacred Heart and a 9:00 AM Mass on Sunday at Dalton St. Mary's.

I would like to thank everyone for the kind cards and gifts for Christmas. Also I would like to acknowledge the gifts given through St. Mary's C.C.W., All Souls C.C.W. and also the Sacred Heart Association. Your thoughts and prayers mean so much.

I would also express appreciation for the youth at Sacred Heart for all the groceries collected and purchased for the Morrill County Food Pantry in Bridgeport. It is good to recall those less fortunate during the holidays. Some of these patrons really do express their appreciation for this help.

If you have not already picked up your 2017 Church calendar, get one in the lobby at church. Also the 2017 boxes of donation envelopes are available.

Also a reminder to those who made pledges for the Faith First Diocesan Appeal last Lent, please make a payment on the pledge. This is an opportunity to still include them on your 2016 tax return. If you have any question on the amount of your pledge please contact me or Carolyn Gusman, our secretary.
