FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK -- Today we celebrate the Solemnity Feast of Corpus Christi. We honor the Real Presence of Jesus in the Body and Blood we receive in Communion. How truly blessed we are in our Catholic faith to have the priesthood instituted by Jesus Christ that empowers the priest to transform the simple bread and wine into the Real Presence. We should never take this for granted. And we need to make sure to receive Communion worthily in a state of grace.

Also this day we observe Father's Day. We pray God's blessing upon all our fathers both living and deceased. Not only is it a day to honor them, but it is a special time for dads to recognize their sacred role in nurturing and guiding their children, including in the ways of faith. May all our dads be good role models.

Let's continue to remember the people of Bayard trying to recover from the tornado last Monday. We are grateful there were no serious injuries. It is truly a blessing to have so many people and businesses respond in assisting those affected by the storm. Sacred Heart Church suffered some damage which has been reported to our insurance company.

We welcome Sister Mary Consolata and Sister Maria Reginald to our parishes. They have come from Ann Arbor, Michigan to conduct this week's Catholic Bible School at the Parish Center of All Souls. I appreciate those who have offered to house them and to provide for their meals during this time. They will be a real blessing to our churches and especially to our young people.

During the next two weekends there will be a second special collection for the Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, the community of the two Sisters conducting our Bible School. Please be generous in helping to support this youthful and growing community of Sisters

CATHOLIC VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL SCHEDULED - June 19th thru 23rd (Mon. to Fri.) 9:00 to 12:00 Noon each day. Join Sisters Mary Consolata and Maria Reginald for a special week. If your children in grades 1 thru 6 have not already registered, then parents are asked to please come early on Monday to register with their children.

BISHOP HANEFELDT TO LEAD FATIME DEVOTION AT DALTON ST. MARY'S - Mark your calendar for Thursday, July 13th for 7:00 PM. The Bishop will lead a Holy Hour in honor of Our Lady of Fatima. Cookies and refreshments will follow. Those who are servers and in music ministry take note. You will be needed. This year is the 100th anniversary of Mary's appearance at Lourdes, France.

ELECTION RESULTS - Last weekend elected to the Sacred Heat Parish Council were John Araujo and Jim Glasco. I always appreciate those who are willing to serve and have their names placed on the ballot. God bless your stewardship of time, talent and treasure on behalf of your parish.

LAST MASSES FOR FATHER DAVE IN PARISH - Even though next weekend will be the last Sunday Mass for Father Dave in the parish, he will have weekday Masses on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, June 28, 29, and 30th. Father C.P. will assume duties on Saturday, July 1st. Please help make Father feel welcome on his arrival.
