Dear Sisters, Brothers and Children in Jesus Christ,

Evil marches on again! The week that passed us by has seen us stunned being informed about Charlottesville, Virginia and then Barcelona, Spain. Where is our society and the world heading to? Is it going backward in history? We are alarmed!!!

Today's liturgy has the theme of Jesus being the savior of all, the Lord of all. The historical Jesus was a Jewish carpenter from Palestine in Asia. It is him that we follow whether we are in Asia, Africa, Antarctica, Australia, America, or Europe. If the apostles of Jesus had not gone out of Palestine, perhaps Christianity would have remained a sect within Judaism even today. But rather, it turned out to be a universal umbrella for the entire human world since giving heed to his command, his disciples went to the nook and corner of the world and proclaimed his universal message.

God has no partiality. God is the God of all of us whether we are black, white, yellow, or brown. God loves you and me whether our actions are good or bad. In Matthew 5: 45 Jesus says, "...you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. For he gives his sunlight to both the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust alike." Further, God loves everyone irrespective of their color, language, place of origin, religion etc. We need to recognize this and proclaim it more through our actions than words in our daily lives.

Yours in Christ Jesus,
Fr.C.P.Varghese
Pastor

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

As announced last weekend, we will begin religious education in all the parishes on Wednesday, September 6th, 2017. All the parents and guardians, please register the names of your children after the weekend masses. Kindly ensure that religious education which helps in forming character, convictions and conscience is given priority over any other activity if you wish your children to grow up being good Christians and honest citizens.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

If your family members, relations, friends, or colleagues would like to be part of our community entering into Catholic Faith by baptism, or be confirmed to be full pledged members, this is the time to start the process. We have the registration forms available before they start their formal weekly classes. Kindly contact the Office / Pastor for details.

ONGOING FORMATION

Let us pledge ourselves to be willing to learn more about Christ, our Faith, our Religion and about our World through a process of ongoing formation. 'That Man is You' and 'Adult Spiritual Enrichment' will begin in September at Bridgeport. Similar programs may be on at Bayard and Dalton too. Let's make best use of every opportunity that comes across to us to form ourselves to be better disciples of Jesus.
