Dear Sisters, Brothers, and Children in Jesus Christ,
The following is an extract from Message of the Holy Father on The World Day of the Poor (Sunday XXXIII of Ordinary Time, November 19, 2017):

"Little children, we love neither words nor language, but with facts and truth" (1 Jn 3:18). These words of the Apostle John express an imperative that no Christian can leave.... We have a great testimony from the first pages of the Acts of the Apostles, where Peter asks to choose seven men "full of the Spirit and of wisdom" (6: 3) in order to take care of the poor. It is certainly one of the first signs with which the Christian community came to the world stage: service to the poorest.... Our experiences of serving the poor should introduce a real encounter with the poor and give rise to a sharing that becomes a lifestyle....

We know the great difficulty that emerges in the contemporary world to be able to clearly identify poverty. Nevertheless, she is questioning us every day with her thousands of faces marked by sorrow, exclusion, abuse, violence, torture and imprisonment, war, deprivation of liberty and dignity, ignorance and illiteracy, health emergencies and lack of work, traits and slavery, exile and misery, forced migration. Poverty has the face of women, men and children exploited for vile interests, trampled by the perverted logic of power and money....On this Sunday (November 19, 2017), if our poor live in our neighborhood seeking protection and help, let's get closer to them: it will be a good time to meet the God we are looking for....This New World Day therefore becomes a strong appeal to our believing conscience so that we are increasingly convinced that sharing with the poor allows us to understand the Gospel in its deepest truth. The poor are not a problem: they are a resource to draw to receive and live the essence of the Gospel."

Let's take to heart the message of Pope Francis on this day.

Yours in Christ Jesus,

Fr.C.P.Varghese

Pastor
